

Model Code Language

As adopted by the WFDSA CEO Council on October 7, 2008

PREFACE

This Code contains guidance on the interaction between:

1. DSA member Companies and their existing and prospective sales representatives;
2. DSA member Companies and their sales representatives and Consumers of the Company's Products;
3. Member Companies as they compete in the marketplace; and
4. Individual Complainants, the DSA Code Administrator, and DSA member Companies.

1. GENERAL

1.1 Scope

The Code contains sections entitled "Conduct For the Protection of Consumers," "Conduct Between Companies and Direct Sellers," and "Conduct Between Companies." These three sections address the varying interactions across the spectrum of direct sales. The Code is designed to assist in the satisfaction and protection of Consumers, promote fair competition within the framework of free enterprise and enhance the public image of Direct Selling.

1.2 Glossary of Terms -- For the purposes of the Code, capitalized terms have the following meaning:

Code Administrator: The independent person or body appointed by DSA to monitor a Company's compliance with the Code and to resolve complaints under the Code.

Company: A business entity that (i) utilizes a Direct Selling distribution system to market its Products, and (ii) is a member of DSA.

Consumer: Any person who purchases and consumes Products from a Direct Seller or a Company.

Direct Seller: A person or entity that is entitled to buy and/or sell the Products of a Company and that may be entitled to recruit other Direct Sellers. Direct Sellers generally market consumer products directly to Consumers away from a permanent, fixed retail location, usually through the explanation or demonstration of products and services. A Direct Seller may be an independent commercial agent, independent contractor, independent dealer or distributor, employed or self-employed representative, or any other similar sales representative of a Company.

Order Form: A printed or written document confirming details of a Consumer order and providing a sales receipt to the Consumer. In the case of Internet purchases, a form containing all terms of the offer and purchase provided in a printable or downloadable format.

Product: Tangible and intangible consumer goods and services.

Recruiting: Any activity conducted for the purpose of assisting a person to become a Direct Seller.

1.3 Companies

Companies pledge to adopt and enforce a code of conduct that incorporates the substance of the provisions of this Code as a condition of admission and continuing membership in the DSA. Companies also pledge to publicize this Code, its general terms as they apply to Consumers and Direct Sellers, and information about where Consumers and Direct Sellers may obtain a copy of this Code.

1.4 Direct Sellers

Direct Sellers are not bound directly by this Code, but, as a condition of membership in the Company's distribution system, shall be required by the Company with whom they are affiliated to adhere to rules of conduct meeting the standards of this Code.

1.5 Self-Regulation

This Code is not law, but its obligations require a level of ethical behavior from Companies and Direct Sellers which conforms with or exceeds applicable legal requirements. Non-observance of this Code does not create any civil law responsibility or liability. With termination of its membership in DSA, a Company is no longer bound by this Code. However, the provisions of this Code remain applicable to events or transactions that occurred during the time a Company was a member of DSA.

1.6 Local Regulations

Companies and Direct Sellers must comply with all requirements of law in any country in which they do business. Therefore, this Code does not restate all legal obligations; compliance by Companies and Direct Sellers with laws that pertain to Direct Selling is a condition of acceptance by or continuing membership in DSA.

1.7 Extraterritorial Effect

Every national DSA pledges that it will require each member as a condition to admission and continuing membership in the DSA to comply with the WFDSA World Codes of Conduct for Direct Selling with regard to direct selling activities outside of its home country, unless those activities are under the jurisdiction of Codes of Conduct of another country's DSA to which the member also belongs.

2. CONDUCT FOR THE PROTECTION OF CONSUMERS

2.8 Cooling-off and Return of Goods

Whether or not it is a legal requirement, Companies and Direct Sellers shall offer a cooling-off period permitting the customer to withdraw from the order within a specified, reasonable period of time. The cooling-off period shall be clearly stated. Companies and Direct Sellers offering a right of return, whether conditioned upon certain events or whether unconditioned, shall provide it in writing.

2.9 Respect of Privacy

Direct Sellers and Companies shall take appropriate steps to ensure the protection of all private information provided by a Consumer, a potential Consumer, or a Direct Seller.

2.10 Fairness

Direct Sellers shall respect the lack of commercial experience of Consumers. Direct Sellers shall not abuse the trust of individual consumers, or exploit a Consumer's age, illness, lack of understanding or unfamiliarity with a language.

2.11 Referral Selling

Companies and Direct Sellers shall not induce a person to purchase goods or services based upon the representation that a Consumer can reduce or recover the purchase price by referring prospective customers to the Direct Sellers for similar purchases, if such reductions or recovery are contingent upon some uncertain, future event.

2.12 Delivery

Companies and Direct Sellers shall fulfill Consumer orders in a timely manner.

3.7 Fees

Companies and Direct Sellers shall not require Direct Sellers or prospective Direct Sellers to assume unreasonably high entrance fees, training fees, franchise fees, fees for promotional materials or other fees related solely to the right to participate in the company's distribution system. Any fees charged to become a Direct Seller shall relate directly to the value of materials, products or services provided in return.

3.8 Termination

If requested upon termination of a Direct Seller's relationship with a Company, Companies shall buy back any unsold, re-saleable Product inventory, promotional material, sales aids and kits, purchased within the previous twelve months and refund the Direct Seller's original cost, less a handling charge to the Direct Seller of up to 10% of the net purchase price. Companies shall take diligent, reasonable steps to ensure that sales aids produced by Direct Sellers comply with the provisions of this Code and are not misleading or deceptive.
